

Bible Women Still Speak

Lesson 12 – Deborah

1. Review Judges 4 & 5. What did you learn about Deborah?
  - What qualities do you most admire about her?

2. Verse 4 in chapter 4 tells us that Deborah was a prophetess and a judge. In your own words, define what a prophet is.
  - Define what a judge is/does.

3. God called Deborah and gave her spiritual gifts; she used those gifts to serve His people. What is/are your spiritual gifts and what are you called to do?

4. Deborah made herself available to God and He used her to lead and help His people. What are some qualities that would make a person approachable?

5. From 4:6-9, who did Deborah send for and what did she tell him?
  - What was his response?

  - What was Deborah's response to him and why do you think the Lord had her tell him this?

6. Read Hebrews 10:24-25. What are we told to do from these verses?
  - Give a couple of examples of how this can be done.
  - Share how the Lord has led you to do this to someone or how the Lord sent someone to you.

7. Deborah was a woman of faith and therefore was courageous to go to battle. What does Ephesians 6:10-18 tell you about the battles you face?

8. How do you think Deborah's courage influenced Jael?
  - How have courageous individuals influence your life?

9. God had done great things for Israel through Deborah and Barak. How did they respond?
  - What are a few things from their song that speak to your heart?

10. In what ways would you like to grow to be more like Deborah?
