

Reflection & Discussion Questions

1. Describe your current quiet time (time of devotions):
 - When do you usually have it?
 - Do you have a special place for it?
 - Do you have a Bible reading plan you follow?
 - Who or what do you typically pray for?

2. “My Heart-Christ’s Home” is a booklet that speaks of how the Lord treasures our time with Him and even waits for us to meet with Him. How does this encourage you?

3. What are some of the reasons believers give for not having a regular quiet time?

4. How would you encourage someone who does not desire a quiet time or see its importance?

5. Life is busy. What do you do to keep your quiet time a priority?
 - Give an example of how you have learned to say “no” to less important things in order to maintain a regular quiet time.

6. Do you anticipate that the Lord will speak to you during your devotions? Why or why not?

7. What are some practical things we can do to protect our quiet time from distractions?

8. What are some of the blessings you receive from your quiet time?

9. In what ways would you like to grow in your prayer life?

10. Comment on the following quote by George Muller,

“The vigor of our spiritual life will be in exact proportion to the place held by the Bible in our life and thoughts.”
